

control arms

Side Event "Promoting sustainable development by reducing the availability and misuse of conventional arms and illicit financial flows"

Co-sponsored by the Government of Mexico and the organizations Control Arms,

Global Financial Integrity and Saferworld

Wednesday, 12 November 2014, 13:15-14:45 hrs.

Conference Room 8 UN Conference Building

Sponsors and Participants:

The Government of Mexico and the organizations Control Arms, Global Financial Integrity and Saferworld.

Event explanation:

Presentations by panelists specialized in different perspectives of the problem, followed by a round of questions and answers, and topics discussion.

PROGRAM

- 13:15-13:20 hrs. Introduction and presentation of the panel by Dr. Roberto Dondisch, Director General for Global Affairs, MFA, Mexico (moderator)
- 13:20-13:30 hrs. "The inclusion of peace in the post-2015 framework: why and how?" by Thomas Wheeler, Conflict and Security Advisor at Saferworld
- 13:30-13:40 hrs. "The impact of illicit and irresponsible arms flows on sustainable Development and how international instruments can help the international community meet goal 16 in general and target 16.4 in specific" by Anna Macdonald, Director at Control Arms
- 13:40-13:50 hrs. "The impact of illicit financial flows on sustainable Development" by Tom Cardamone, Managing Director at Global Financial Integrity
- 13:50-14:00 hrs. "How to think about indicators for target 16.4? by Dr. Roberto Dondisch.
- 14:00-14:30 hrs. Questions and discussion
- 14:30-14:45 hrs. Concluding remarks